Airport – Port Transfer Information
Port of Funchal, Portugal

The town of Funchal is the main town of the Ilha de Madeira. The island is the largest of a small group located in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean some 600 Kms. away from the coast of Morocco. The port of Funchal is architecturally pleasing with the added attraction of its decorative paving.

TRANSPORTATION

Taxi -- There will always be a friendly taxi driver at your disposal and glad to take you anywhere you want. The taxi rank is located outside the airport arrival lounge, just look for a yellow car with blue stripes and the sign 'TAXI' on top.

Bus -- The company responsible for bus transportation from the airport is SAM. After you leave the arrivals, follow the main road and keep on the right side. After approx. 100 meters you will find a bus stop. The ticket to Funchal is payable on board. Approximate travel time is 50 minutes.

Aerobus -- If you are a TAP passenger coming from Lisbon you can get on the Aerobus free of charge if you show the driver your boarding ticket. If you are not a TAP passenger you will have to pay on the bus. On your return from Funchal to the airport, the bus leaves from Avenida do Mar, directly in front of the TAP office.

Rental Cars -- There are several rent-a-car companies outside the airport arrival lounge. Look for the best offer! If you don't want to take the chance of not having a car when you arrive, book a car before you leave home.

MONEY/CURRENCY

Currency: Euro

Money can be changed at Banks, Bureau De Change (Cambio) or at one of the currency exchange machines in the streets. These facilities will offer a better rate than in Hotels and Receptions.

Euro-cheque is a cheaper method than a Travellers Cheque to obtain cash. All well-known Credit Cards are usually universally accepted.
